Team robot super power:

The Meanies Invade

The Meanies have invaded and all computers have stopped working

Write as many things you know that use computers

Mobile phones, Cars, microwave, washing machine, dish washer

What to do with a Meanie

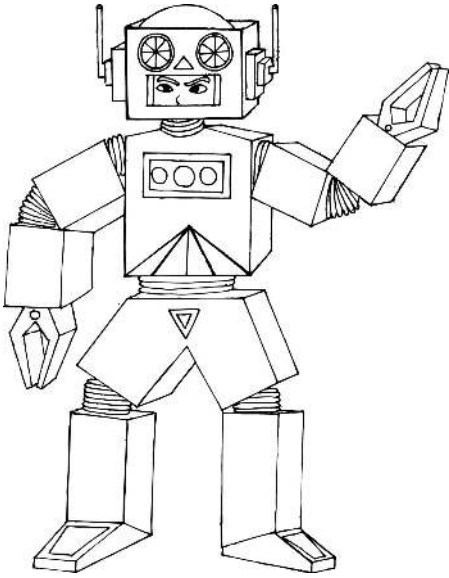

sometimes people can be mean.

What do you do if somebody is mean to you?

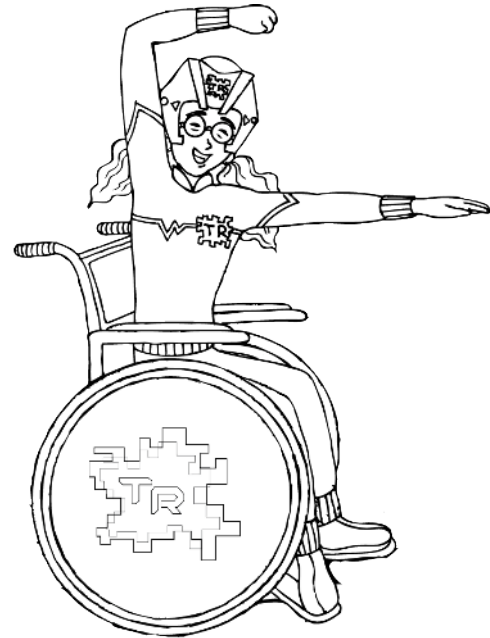

Write down ways you can deal with someone being mean.

(Please note you are not allowed to zap them with a Meanie gun as that makes you meaner than a meanie!)

Code

Team Robot programmed the Robots to dance.

Can you write down a code for some new moves to teach your Robot. You can write them and also make up a hand movement.

Then you can teach them to friend.

King Meanie

The king of the meanies is the meanest of them all.

Write down why sometimes people might be mean to others

Disco Meanies

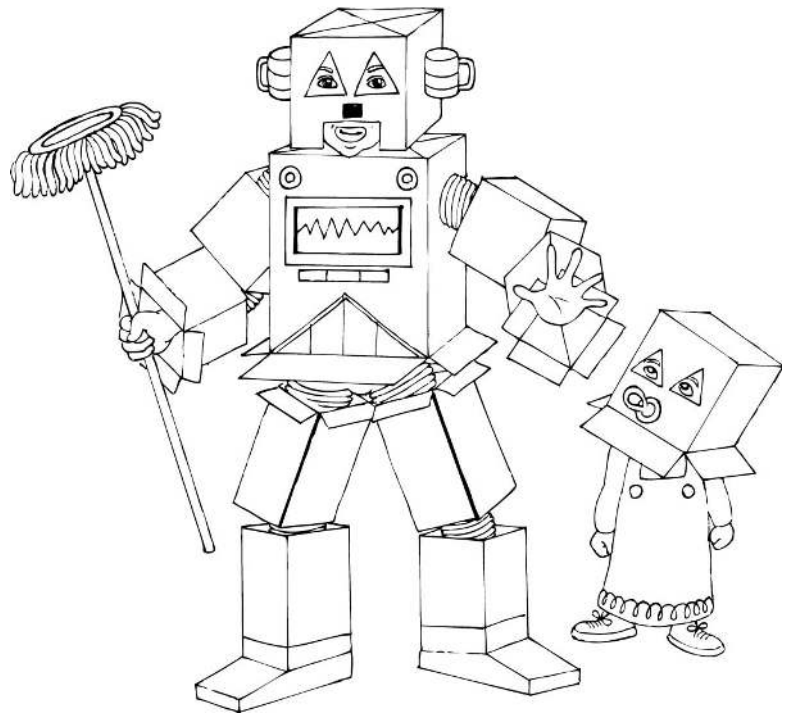

Team robot change the programming of the meanies by teaching them to love dancing. write down all the things you like doing that make you feel good.

Write your own code

We taught the robots to move through dance and symbols.

Can you write a code to instruct someone how to perform an every day task.

Internet safety

What should you do if you receive an email from someone you don't know?

What could happen to your computer if you download something when you don't know what it is ?

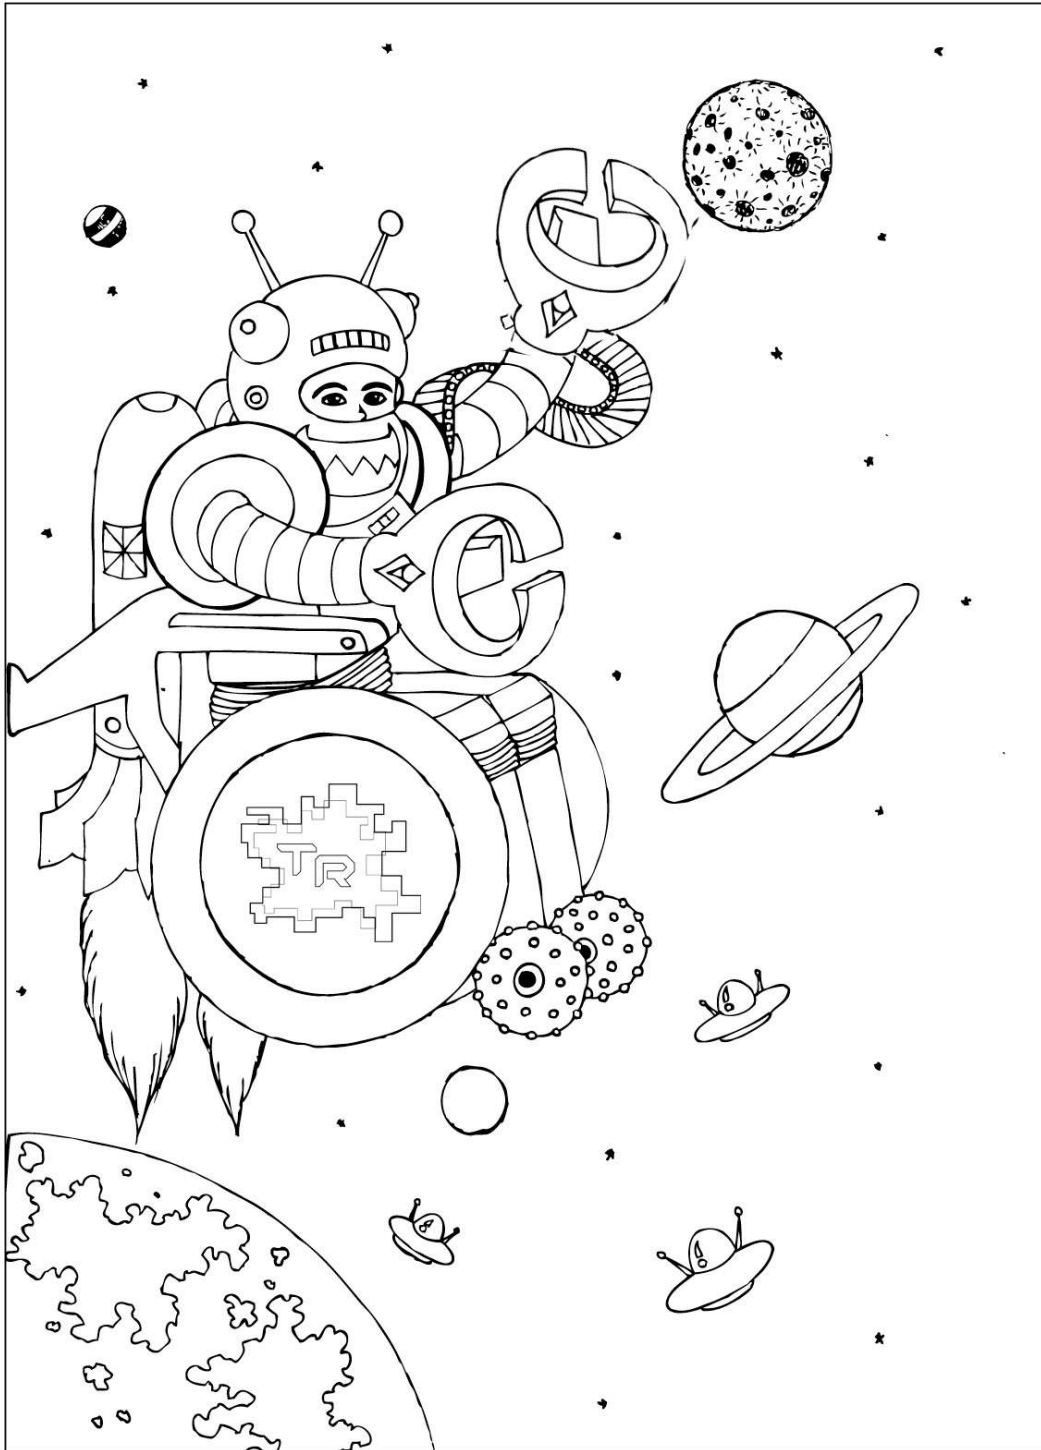

If you get offered a free game to download what should you do?

The Alien are coming

We showed the Aliens we were friendly by disco dancing - How else could you make friends?

Future imagination

What do you think will be invented in the future?
